DISABILITY ADVOCATE WANTED!

Are you an experienced advocate for people with a disability?

Midlas are offering a rewarding opportunity for experienced disability advocates who are seeking the combination of job satisfaction and working for a busy organisation with a highly positive and supportive culture. The key responsibilities of this role are to work with people with disabilities, their carers and families living within our region to promote their rights, participation and goals.

The ideal candidate will meet the following criteria:

Be confident in addressing people from a diverse range of backgrounds and have excellent interpersonal and client centred advocacy skills

Experience in providing disability advocacy services and knowledge of the issues impacting upon people with disabilities

An understanding and working knowledge of the National Disability Insurance Scheme

We have a number of positions available with the option for Full time or Part time roles. The positions are paid at a SACS Level 4.1. More information on our website www.midlas.org.au

APPLY NOW! Send a CV and statement addressing the Selection Criteria to sarah.patterson@midlas.org.au

Midlas

Building Resilient Communities